Greetings Holly Area Business Owner:

Time sure flies, doesn't it? It's already time to start thinking about the 35th Carry Nation Festival (CNF) that's held right here in Holly, MI every September. We hope you were able to join us last September and enjoy some of the new festival activities. This year we plan to add even more, and like last year, we would like your business to be a part of it.

The CNF Committee would like to invite your Holly Area business to become a CNF Sponsor. Becoming a festival sponsor is an excellent and easy way to get involved in the Carry Nation Festival. There are various sponsorships available for every size business. CNF Sponsorships provide great advertising opportunities and offer your business a great way to become more involved in the Holly community.

Don't forget about the CNF parade. It's an enjoyable way to showcase your business, have lots of fun with co-workers and it's free to participate. Visit our web site today for more information.

Did you know it was exactly 100 years ago that Carry Nation stopped in Holly, MI?
